

Mark Twain Literacy Project:

A Special Program Sponsored by WENY Newschannel 36 and the Center for Mark Twain Studies

Teachers will choose age-appropriate books from a selection of choices from the Dover Thrift Edition Catalog:

- April Jones Prince, Who Was Mark Twain?
- Mark Twain, Tom Sawyer, Detective
- Mark Twain, Tom Sawyer (In Easy-to Read Type)
- Mark Twain, The Adventures of Tom Sawyer (full text or easy-to-read)
- Mark Twain, Adventures of Huckleberry Finn (full text or easy-to-read)
- Mark Twain, A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court
- Mark Twain, The Prince and the Pauper
- Mark Twain, The Tragedy of Pudd'nhead Wilson
- Mark Twain, Humorous Stories and Sketches
- Mark Twain, The Mysterious Stranger and Other Stories
- Mark Twain, Great Speeches
-

Students may travel to Elmira College to see the Mark Twain Study and Exhibit, the Archives, and Woodlawn Cemetery. Students may also visit Quarry Farm, where Mark Twain spent many summers, for educational activities and a presentation in the Barn.

To order books and to schedule campus visits, contact Dr. Joseph Lemak

Dr. Joseph Lemak, Director
jlemak@elmira.edu

Ms. Trish Cordell, Academic Secretary
pcordell@elmira.edu

Center for Mark Twain Studies
twaincenter@elmira.edu

