April 25, 7:30 p.m.

The Barn, Quarry Farm

“Fishing with Mark Twain”

Dr. Gary Scharnhorst, University of New Mexico

Dr. Scharnhorst will talk about fishing and camping with Huck and Tom—or maybe even Clemens’ fishing ventures in Chemung County.

May 2, 7:30 p.m.

The Barn, Quarry Farm

“Hannibal Report”

Henry Sweets, Director of the Mark Twain Boyhood Home & Museum

Mr. Sweets will share all the latest developments about Hannibal, Missouri. Have you visited Hannibal? Bring your photos to share.

May 9, 7:30 p.m.

The Barn, Quarry Farm

“Teaching Mark Twain”

Dr. David E.E. Sloane, University of New Haven

Dr. Sloane will discuss his book Student Companion to Mark Twain, which will be available for purchase at the lecture. An entertaining and surprising evening is certain.

May 16, 7:30 p.m.

The Barn, Quarry Farm

“A Jack-Leg Writer at Quarry Farm: Twain’s Representations and Misrepresentations of his Composing Methods”

Dr. Joe Fulton, Baylor University

Dr. Fulton will speak about his new book, Mark Twain in the Margins: The Quarry Farm Marginalia and A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur’s Court, which you may purchase at the lecture. Also, a special exhibit of Mark Twain’s Quarry Farm Marginalia will be on display.
