

Elmira College
Center for Mark Twain Studies at Quarry Farm
Presents

FIVE SPRING EVENTS

Wednesday, March 28, 1990
8:00 p.m. at QUARRY FARM

Kerry Driscoll of Elmira College's English faculty offers us an encore of her illustrated talk A Tramp Abroad: Mark Twain in Heidelberg. Professor Driscoll served as a Fulbright Lecturer at the University of Heidelberg in 1986. Choice Magazine lists her recently published William Carlos Williams and the Maternal Muse among the "Outstanding Academic Books of 1988-89."

Wednesday, April 11, 1990
8:00 p.m. at QUARRY FARM

Alan Gribben of the University of Texas at Austin will speak on Huckleberry Finn's Missing Twin. A nationally renowned and extensively published Mark Twain scholar, Professor Gribben is the Center's first Jervis Langdon, Jr. Research Fellow-in-Residence and appears under the auspices of the Center's Distinguished Academic Visitors program. He is also a member of the Center's National Committee of Academic Advisors.

Wednesday, April 25, 1990
8:00 p.m. at QUARRY FARM

Francine Witte is the recipient of the Just Buffalo Literary Center's 1989 Writer-in-Residence Award for Poetry. She has published prose as well as poetry and authored dramatic pieces performed in a number of upstate theaters. Ms. Witte will read from her published work and work-in-progress.

Wednesday, May 9, 1990
8:00 p.m. at QUARRY FARM

Richard B. Carter teaches Philosophy at the University of Maryland's Baltimore County Campus and offers us a philosopher's view of Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court in a talk entitled Yankee Ingenuity as the Foundation of the New Social Order. Professor Carter has published books and articles in his field here and abroad.

Wednesday, May 23, 1990
8:00 p.m. at QUARRY FARM

David E.E. Sloane of the University of New Haven will speak on Mark Twain, Literary Comedian—The Influence of the Northeast on Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. A nationally renowned Mark Twain scholar, Professor Sloane is the Center's first Henry Nash Smith Research Fellow-in-Residence and appears under the auspices of the Center's Distinguished Academic Visitors program. He is the author of numerous books, articles, and reviews on Mark Twain and American humor.

Quarry Farm is located on Crane Road which can be reached from East Avenue or Lattabrook Road.

To reserve your seat, call: 734-3911, extension 239