

Elmira College Center
for Mark Twain Studies
at Quarry Farm

presents

Three Summer Events

Monday, June 25, 1990
8:00 p.m. at QUARRY FARM

Clare Reidy and the Quarry Farm Players give an encore performance of Sweet Love Remembered: Katy Leary and the Clemens Family. Clare Reidy, who portrays Katy Leary in the Mark Twain Musical Drama, has long been active as a director and actress in local and regional theater.

Monday, July 23, 1990
8:00 p.m. at QUARRY FARM

Professor Susan K. Harris of Queens College will speak on Overcoming Sin: The Audiences for Mark Twain's "Hadleyburg." Professor Harris is the author of books, articles and reviews on Mark Twain, nineteenth century American women writers, and other figures and topics in American literature.

Monday, August 13, 1990
8:00 p.m. at QUARRY FARM

Mary Boewe will speak on The American Vandal Goes A-Courting; or Mark Twain's First Elmira Lecture and Its Romantic Aftermath. Mrs. Boewe was a presenter of a juried paper at the Center's Yankee Conference last summer and is writing a book on the Clemens' marriage. Her talk is adapted from a chapter of her work-in-progress.

Quarry Farm is located on Crane Road which can be reached from East Avenue or Lattabrook Road.

To reserve your seat, call: 734-3911, extension 239