8:00 P.M. at Quarry Farm

Clare Reidy and the Quarry Farm Players present an encore performance of Sweet Love Remembered: Katy Leary and the Clemens Family. The dramatization of the relationship between Elmira's Kate Leary and the Clemens family features local actresses Ann Milliken Reidy, Katie Peterson and Kelly McDermott, as well as Clare Reidy, who has portrayed Kate Leary in the Mark Twain Musical Drama since its inception.

Monday, July 1, 1991
8:00 P.M. at Quarry Farm

Professor Leland Krauth of the University of Colorado will speak on The Whimsical Mark Twain. Professor Krauth, a member of the Editorial Board of Studies in American Humor since 1982, is the author of numerous articles and reviews on Mark Twain and other American literary figures.

Monday, July 15, 1991
8:00 P.M. at Quarry Farm

Professor Ruth Prigozy of Hofstra University will introduce a showing and discuss David Selznik's outstanding 1938 film version of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer. Professor Prigozy has written books and articles on both literature and film and will explore the challenges of translating literature into film. This event is funded in part by a special grant from the New York Council for the Humanities.

Monday, August 5, 1991
8:00 P.M. at Quarry Farm

Clare Reidy and the Quarry Farm Players will premiere a new play, Himself and the Ladies. This work focuses on women writers of the late nineteenth century and their "presence" in the world of Mark Twain's ladies. The play features Clare Reidy, Christine Huddle, and Ann Milliken Reidy.
