

Elmira College

THE CENTER FOR MARK TWAIN STUDIES

1999 Spring Lecture Series "The Trouble Begins At Eight"

April 28, 1999

Greet Elmira College's own Assistant Professor of Human Services to kick off the 1999 Spring Lecture Series.

"Failed Families and the Crisis of Connectedness in Adventures of Huckleberry Finn"

Maureen Donohue-Smith, Elmira College
Quarry Farm, 8 P.M.

May 12, 1999

Quarry Farm, 8 P.M.

"Riding a Comet - The Humble Beginnings of Samuel L. Clemens"

John Huffman, Florida, Missouri

This is Mr. Huffman's first visit to Elmira. Help us extend a warm welcome one of the "family" from Missouri. Mr. Huffman is the Historic Site Administrator of the Mark Twain Birthplace State Historic Site.

May 26, 1999

Quarry Farm, 8 P.M.

"How Mark Twain Parented His Young Children"

Victor Doyno, State University of New York at Buffalo

Join us to welcome Dr. Doyno once again to Elmira College. He was the Center for Mark Twain Studies's first scholar-in-residence in 1984.

It is the wise child that knows its own father, and an unusual one that unreservedly approves of him.
- Mark Twain