

Mark Twain Literacy Project:

A Special Program Sponsored by WENY Newschannel 36
and the Center for Mark Twain Studies

Open to all local schools at all grade levels. The Mark Twain Literacy Project brings a collection of Twain's most memorable books to local classrooms, all at no cost to the school, teacher, or student. Classrooms who take advantage of this opportunity often complement the Twain-focused lessons in the classroom with a visit to the Mark Twain Study and Exhibit on the Elmira College campus and Quarry Farm.

Teachers will choose age-appropriate books from a selection of choices from the Dover Thrift Edition Catalog:

- April Jones Prince, Who Was Mark Twain?
- Mark Twain, Tom Sawyer, Detective
- Mark Twain, Tom Sawyer (In Easy-to Read Type)
- Mark Twain, The Adventures of Tom Sawyer (full text or easy-to-read)
- Mark Twain, Adventures of Huckleberry Finn (full text or easy-to-read)
- Mark Twain, A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court
- Mark Twain, The Prince and the Pauper
- Mark Twain, The Tragedy of Pudd'nhead Wilson
- Mark Twain, Humorous Stories and Sketches
- Mark Twain, The Mysterious Stranger and Other Stories
- Mark Twain, Great Speeches

To order book and to schedule a campus visit, contact Dr. Joseph Lemak

We encourage all teachers to explore all of our Twain-related classroom resources located under the "Resources for Teachers" sidebar icon at MarkTwainStudies.org

Dr. Joseph Lemak, Director
jlemak@elmira.edu

Center for Mark Twain Studies
twaincenter@elmira.edu

